To our Clients and Friends:

We are pleased to announce that Marvin Miller, a founding member of Crath Miller & Xistris LLP, has been named Department Head of the Firm's Finance and Banking practice group. Marvin has more than 30 years of financial transaction expertise at the intersection of law, business, advisory and transactional assignments encompassing a broad range of private and public financial transactions.

Marvin's representation has included domestic and international corporate, financial and banking institutions, hedge funds, family offices, high net-worth individuals, and governmental entities in a wide range of financing, mergers and acquisitions, roll-up transactions, leveraged buyouts, securities transactions, corporate strategic equity and debt transactions, including first, second lien, subordinated debt and mezzanine debt financings, financier equity positions, sale-leasebacks, synthetic leases, debtor-in-possession facilities, municipal bond offerings, and art and racehorse financings.

Marvin's is well known for identifying the risk profile of transactional decisions made by CMX's clients and providing creative problem solving and risk mitigation advice in the pursuit of their business objectives.

Marvin began his career in the 1980s at White & Case LLP specializing in banking, finance, securities and mergers and acquisitions. He is a former partner at Winston & Strawn LLP and was previously the General Counsel and Managing Director of Pelican Point Capital and Pelican Point Media based in Newport Beach, California.

Marvin's email is miller@cmxlaw.com and his phone number is +1 (949) 445-2306. You can download Marvin's vCard Here
